The story unfolds from a fictional world called the Lands Between. Human civilization has collapsed, and the civilization of Elden has not been restored to its former glory. Humanity is forced to survive in an aged world, and the Lands Between has become a defiled wasteland. The Lands Between are a mixture of a primitive world of sorts and an ancient world that has been born anew. In this world, rich in the traces of magic, the young savior, Hiromu, is wandering in search of a method to restore its power. A vision of a young woman calling out to him appear in a dream. A group of demons arrives, and takes the girl from him. In a desperate attempt, Hiromu recovers her. Having lost her, Hiromu's existence and memories return. While wandering in the Lands Between, he comes across people whose corpses have been exhumed. The corpses are brought back to life as the form of a being called Goblins. In order to revive the plant itself, the young man called Gobbioneer uses his powers of revival to restore the corpses into full-fledged beings. As a result, ordinary beings are converted into Goblins, and the lands are invaded by a horrifying invasion of creatures. In order to protect a young girl who has been awakened from dormancy, Gobbioneer and the people called the "Elden Ring" form an alliance. Together, they defeat the enemy, and the lands are returned to a beautiful state. Eventually, the Empire of Dust is reborn with the two as the core, and together they form the future of the Lands Between.
