A lot of the American Idol fans don't want to even think about the next American Idol. Why is that? Is it the show's success? Is it the winning contestants? Is it the commentators? And why do people like the show so much? I would guess that the answer isn't that simple, but I will try to touch on a few of the elements that have helped make this such a successful show. It started with the judges. Kara DioGuardi and Simon Cowell. Cowell is a British show host. A guy who's main job is to try to manipulate contestants into making choices that are the wrong choices. He's great at what he does, but it's easy to see that his success had much to do with the charisma of the judges. Cowell's personal opinion doesn't mean a whole 6d1f23a050
