That's the kind of "unbeatable mind" we want to cultivate. In Closing: What's Your Unbeatable Mind? We want all who read this article and use the techniques described to win, to have minds that can withstand the most challenging of situations and thrive in the most difficult of conditions. Specifically, we want people who can: Act with deliberate purpose and be guided by clear vision. Drive both self-discipline and grace through commitment and effort. Develop self-awareness and cultivate self-assurance through personal growth. To that end, we're going to help you get to know yourself better. We're going to help you strengthen your mind. We're going to help you focus on the stuff that matters, and let the rest of life take care of itself. You're going to learn to hone your focus. You're going to learn how to push yourself outside of your comfort zone. You're going to gain the mettle to stare any challenge straight in the eye and be confident that you can win. When this is done right, we can win. The Navy SEAL Mental Toughness: A Guide to Developing An Unbeatable Mind is designed to help you create that kind of mind. As you read, we're going to give you an understanding of the toughness that's made the SEALs so formidable—not the stuffy, harsh discipline that's bred so many failures. The SEAL way is about cultivating resilience. It's about those little mental habits that
